1961 Club

Far too many promising students still find great divides between themselves and higher education. Whether those divides are measured in dollars, distance or responsibilities, these students may dream of attending the University of Georgia, but life keeps those dreams from coming true.

The 1961 Club is building a bridge over that divide. In honor of the year Hamilton Holmes, Charlayne Hunter-Gault and Mary Frances Early struck down a massive barrier for generations to come, 1961 Club members give to the Black Alumni Scholarship Fund to open doors for students.

Give Now

We are committed to bringing more students to Athens to pursue their passions and become tomorrow's leaders. By joining the 1961 Club, you strengthen that effort and help us build a future where every student has access to higher education.

Thank you,

Tonya Henderson Freeman (AB '86)
Inaugural Black Alumni Leadership Council Member
Past Fundraising Co-Chair

Dear [SALUTATION],

Last month marked 62 years since Hamilton Holmes and Charlayne Hunter-Gault stepped through the doors of the University of Georgia. In the face of overwhelming opposition, they, along with Mary Frances Early, changed UGA—and the lives of generations of students—forever.

We honor their courage and join in their legacy by becoming members of the 1961 Club. When you make a commitment of $19.61 or more to the UGA Black Alumni Scholarship Fund, you automatically become a member and join a group of individuals who share a deep commitment to opening doors for talented students like Neilla Cadet.

I was born in Haiti, but moved to Winder, Georgia, at 13. Growing up, my interest was always in helping my community, so while we never had much, I would give whatever I could to help those in need around me. When I neared the end of high school, I set my sights on UGA, knowing that I would find an excellent education and a supportive community. But despite all my hard work, I was short on resources.

And that's when I got an email letting me know I had received the UGA Black Alumni Scholarship. It was the last piece of the puzzle, and I was so blessed to receive it. To me, this scholarship represents hope, hard work, and an open door to success. The UGA Black Alumni Scholarship means everything to me.

Contributing to the Black Alumni Scholarship Fund helps so many people. You can be someone's light in the darkness, someone's hope at the edge of depression, just by doing something small that means so much to them.

By working toward a future where every student like Neilla has access to a college education, 1961 Club members are building a bridge to a better tomorrow. I hope you will join us in building that bridge.

Thank you,

Jacinta Smith (BS '01, MS '04)
