Louisville Neighborhoods

Downtown – Mostly renters and individuals that go to University of Louisville

Highlands – Active social life scene – lots of restaurants, shops, and parks. Lots of young professionals.

St Matthews – Mostly older homes built in the 60s – Middle of the city – extremely popular place to live

East End – Mid to Upper Class

Dixie Hwy – Lower income, blue collar neighborhoods, homes are cheaper but there's a higher issue with crime

Fern Cern – Great location for individuals looking to buy a starter home. Not as expensive as the east end and many new neighborhoods are being built

Southern Indiana – Many individuals that work in Louisville live in Southern Indiana. Homes are cheaper and there are growing communities

COVID-10 Updates

- The Take-Out and Curbside Delivery Scene in Louisville has really grown since COVID19. The community has rallied behind our thriving restaurant community and has created comprehensive listings of restaurants that offer take out. The Facebook Group is extremely popular.
